

Editor's Message

As I finish my job as Lighthouse editor, it is with mixed emotions. There is a sense of relief that a long hard task is done. There is also a sense of sadness that I will no longer have the pleasure of working with a fine staff as we try to produce something worthwhile.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the people who have worked so hard in putting this yearbook together. A very special thanks should go to Miss Dolan, the yearbook sponsor, for all her time and hard work.

In addition, I would like to thank all the annual staff who have worked so diligently; Mr. Reyman, our school photographer; Mr. Sprague, the Taylor representative; the businessmen who have used our yearbook to advertise; and the kind people who sponsored us.

I sincerely hope that each of you will enjoy this yearbook as much as we, the annual staff, have enjoyed bringing it to you.

Priscilla McDunnah, Editor-in-Chief

"Praise ye the Lord . . .

Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet . . .

Praise Him with the stringed instruments . . .

Praise Him upon the loud cymbals . . ."

Psalm 150

To Mr. Victor Johnson, who has made the words of this psalm a part of his life's creed, and who has dedicated his time and effort for many years to the musical and moral training of young minds, this book is lovingly inscribed.

We as Christian young people should not live in the past. This is not God's plan. There are many examples in the world today of people who let the mistakes of yesterday make their lives miserable and unhappy. For the Christian young person, then, these things should be in the past and gone forever.

It is not God's plan for any to be burdened with the sorrows and guilt of yesterday rising up to haunt them. He has provided a better plan. One of the greatest helps to forgetting the past is accepting it as God's will and plan for us. "All things work together for good to them that love God." Romans 8:28.

It seems hard to believe always that God means just what he says, but He promises us that when He forgives sin He remembers it no more. May the Lord abundantly bless each of you as you serve Him from day to day, and look only to the future as He leads.

The men of S.D U.A. drill every Thursday night, preparing themselves to serve their country well in the Medical Corps. Sometimes the going is a bit rough, but alt-in-all, the M.C.C. fellows really appreciate the discipline and training they receive.

Lieutenants Davis and West are not easy to please; every shoe must be shined, every buckle polished. Finally, they have a corps of men ready to meet the sharpest of inspections and ready to drill with the best companies.

Daniel Webster ence wrote. "If we work upon marble, it will perish of on brass time will efface it, if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust but if we work upon minds, and imbae them with principles with the just fear of God and love of our fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity."

This is why the field of teaching is so challenging it is a profession dealing with the louiding of reinds and characters that will either aid or builder the causes of God and man.

This is why the field of teaching is so rewarding as the teacher sees progress being made in the physical, mental and spiritual development of voing people he can thank God for having had a part in the building of those lives.

This is why San Diego Union Academy exists not only to import knowledge, but to train young people how to use knowledge for the betterment of mankind and for the development of their own characters.

Tor what shall it profit a nam if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?"
